

Student Intervention Plan Reflection Worksheet

Instructions:

This worksheet is designed to help you reflect on the effectiveness of intervention strategies for at-risk students. Consider the intervention methods discussed in class and apply them to a real or hypothetical student case.

Part 1: Identifying the Student's Needs

1. Describe the at-risk student's background and challenges.

- What behavioral, academic, or social concerns indicate the student is at risk?
- What contributing factors (e.g., trauma, bullying, family instability) are present?

2. What early warning signs were observed?

- Low engagement in class?
 - Behavioral outbursts?
 - Social withdrawal?

Part 2: Developing the Intervention Plan

3. What intervention strategies were applied?

- Mentorship and check-in programs?
- Restorative justice practices?
- Counseling or social-emotional learning support?
- Academic support or modified classroom strategies?

4. Who was involved in the intervention?

- School counselor, teacher, or mentor?
 - Parents or guardians?
 - External agencies (mental health services, law enforcement)?

Part 3: Evaluating the Outcome

Student Intervention Plan Reflection Worksheet

5. What improvements or changes were observed in the student?

- Did the student's behavior, engagement, or academic performance change?
- How did the student respond to intervention efforts?

6. What challenges were encountered during the intervention?

- Lack of cooperation from student or family?
 - Insufficient resources or time?
 - Need for stronger multi-agency collaboration?

Part 4: Reflection & Future Actions

7. What would you do differently if faced with a similar case?

- Adjust intervention timing or approach?
- Involve additional support systems?
- Modify classroom accommodations?

8. How can intervention strategies be improved at your school?

- More training for staff?
 - Stronger partnerships with community organizations?
 - Increased availability of mental health resources?

Final Takeaways:

- What was the most effective part of the intervention?
- What key lesson did you learn from this case?
